

Volunteer of the Year Award

In Memory of Helen Rosch

History of the Award

The award recognizes an outstanding volunteer for dedication to the mission of the Agency and to the spirit of volunteerism, which has greatly impacted the lives of those in need throughout the community.

Who is eligible?

Any volunteer serving in any program throughout the Agency is eligible to receive the award. Nominees should:

- Reflect a faithful commitment to the Mission and Values of the Agency.
- Exhibit a willingness to serve his or her program with enthusiasm and energy.
- Be a community ambassador for the Agency, promoting all efforts and programs.

How is the recipient honored?

Recipients will:

- Receive a US Savings Bond.
- Have their names inscribed on a plaque.
- Have an article sent to their local papers acknowledging their receipt of the award.

Past Award Recipients

2006 Helen Rosch

2007 Betty Church

Betty Hordubay

2008 Ben Church

2009 Brigette Scaramozzino

2010/11 Crystal Hritz

2012 Kent Tonkin

2013 Marie Doyle

Volunteer of the Year Award

In Memory of Helen Rosch

NOMINATION FORM

Name of Nominee:

Job Classification: Office:

I/We believe this person should be considered for the Award for the following reasons. (Provide one or two examples describing how your nominee meets the eligibility guidelines established for this award. Additionally, how has the nominee inspired you/your team personally or professionally?)

Signature(s) of Nominator(s):

Nominations may be submitted by one person or a group of co-workers.

Please submit nominations no later than Friday, May 9, 2014.